Rome, October 6.

ON the 1ſt of this Month, being the Birth-day of the Archduke of Auſtria lately proclaim'd King of Spain, a ſolemn Service was to have been perform'd with a Conſort of Muſick in the Church dell' Anima; in which Count Lamberg the Emperor's Ambaſſador had caus'd the Picture of his Catholick Majeſty Charles III. drawn at length in Royal Robes and in a Spaniſh Dreſs, to be ſet up. But the Miniſters of the 2 united Crowns having laid Complaints concerning this Matter before the Pope, ſeveral Congregations were held, and Cardinal Carpegna was order'd, to ſignifie to the Imperial Ambaſſador that his Holineſs diſapprov'd of his ſetting up the Picture with deſign to make ſuch publick Rejoycings on that Occaſion, and to acquaint the Curate of that Pariſh, that if he did not take care to get the Picture remov'd forthwith, the Church ſhould be ſhut up. Upon which and upon the Venetian Ambaſſador's adviſing Count Lamberg to deſiſt from his Deſign, repreſenting to him that it would occaſion a Riot in which much Blood might be ſpilt, His Excellency thought fit to purſue the Matter no further, but order'd the Picture to be fetch'd back; which was done publickly, 60 of his own Guards attending it, and a Set of Muſicianers playing before it: And being plac'd in the great Hall of his Palace under a Canopy of State, it was expos'd to the View of the Publick 3 days. A multitude of People throng'd to ſee it, among them many Spaniards and Neapolitans who openly expreſs'd great Satisfaction at the Sight. Some Frenchmen could not forbear mingling in the Crowd likewiſe, but being ſo vain as to diſtinguiſh themſelves by keeping on their Hats, thoſe that guarded the Picture beſtow'd ſome dry Blows upom them and turn'd them out. The Count de Lamberg has ſince ſent an Expreſs to Vienna with an Account of all that paſs'd on this Occaſion. The Duke d'Uzeda, Ambaſſador of Spain, has procur'd a Liſt of all the Spaniards & Neapolitans who went to ſee the Picture we have been mentioning, and has put a Stop at the Datary to the iſſuing of the Briefs for ſuch of them as have been lately nominated to Benefices: He has likewiſe return'd Thanks to the Pope, as well for preventing the expoſing of the Picture in the Church, as for the Refuſal made by Signior Davia his Holineſs's Nuncio at Vienna to own the Arch-Duke for King of Spain. In a Congregation lately held, it was debated whether the ſaid Nuncio ſhould be recall'd, ſeeing he is forbidden the Imperial Court, and carried that he ſhould ſtay. The Differences between the Pope and the Duke of Savoy are amicably adjuſted by the Interpoſition of the Cardinal di San Ceſareo. The Preſents his Holineſs deſigns to ſend the King and Queen of Spain being got ready, he had a mind to ſee them himſelf, was pleas'd with them, and order'd them to be diſpatch'd to Signior Zandedari his Nuncio Extraordinary at Madrid, who is to deliver them to their Majeſties.

Vienna, October 20. Yeſterday the Count de Lamberg's Secretary arriv'd here from Rome, with advice, that his Maſter intending to celebrate the King of Spain's Birth-day with great Solemnity, and to put up his Catholick Majeſty's Picture in the Church of the German Nation at Rome, the Pope forbad his doing it on pretence it might occaſion an Uproar: And 'tis ſince talk'd that his Holineſs's Nuncio will be ſuddenly order'd to leave this Place.

The Advices from the Danube ſay, that the Prince of Baden being joyn'd by the Detachment commanded by General Schulemberg (whoſe defeating a French Convoy and taking a great Booty, mention'd in our former, is not confirm'd,) is marching towards Mundelheim; and Count Stirum is, 'tis ſaid, order'd to march upwards from Heydenheim to joyn him likewiſe. The main Army of the French and Bavarians lyes between Ulm and Munderkingen.

The Marſhal de Tallard, in his March to beſiege Landau, made himſelf Maſter of a Redoubt and a Bridge which the Enemy had at Hagenbach over the great and leſſer Branch of the Rhine, guarded by 4 Battallions, which retir'd on the approach of the King's Troops. Monſieur Filet has the Direction of the Works againſt Landau, and promiſes a ſpeedy good iſſue of that Siege.
